Date: 030310

Location: 41 Perimeter Center East, Suite 100, Dunwoody, GA.

On Wednesday, March 3, 2010, the Dunwoody Police Department will be hosting Chief Goga Grigalashvili of the Tbilisi, Georgia Police Department. Chief Grigalashvili oversees 11,000 patrol officers countrywide. Chief Grigalashvili is making his first trip to the United States and will be visiting a number of police agencies in Georgia, including the Dunwoody Police Department. The Tbilisi, Georgia Police Department is only six years old. According to Chief Billy Grogan, "Members of the Dunwoody Police Department will have a great opportunity to share the lessons learned in the start-up of our agency and discuss best practices for a professional police department with Chief Grigalashvili". The Dunwoody Police Department presentation will cover a wide range of topics of interest to Chief Grigalashvili. The facilitator for this trip is Senior Police Advisor, Michael Turner, for the U.S. Department of State. Mr. Turner is a former Police Chief here in Georgia and now is a police advisor with the Tbilisi, Georgia police department. All parties will be available at either 9:30am or 5pm for statements.
